MASS TIMES

Please note the mass this week!

TODAY IS OUR HARVEST FESTIVAL!

We hope that you stay afterwards and share in our celebrations of Harvest? It is right to give thanks and praise for all the gifts we receive with the food we have in plenty (or we should) and also recognizing the needs of those who are less fortunate than we are.

Let us stay and consume every morsel of food so that we do not waste any!

COMMEMORATION OF ALL SOULS

This will be on Sunday 3rd November and list is available on the desk at the rear of the church whereby you can add the name of those whom you wish to be read during the Eucharist.

Please write clearly and legible so that it makes it easier to print the names and be read, otherwise, the name will be omitted from the service and may cause upset.

THE LIST WILL BE TAKEN AWAY NEXT SUNDAY.

DECISION

It was by a unanimous decision that we will have a New Year's Party in the church hall on Saturday 11th January, with dinner and dance! Tickets for this event will go on sale from November and you need to see Sheryl who has once again agreed to coordinate this event!

This is a limited ticket offer, so it is a case of first come, first to have a jolly good time!

PCC

We had a very good meeting last week with some major decisions being made. We had good thorough discussions and it has to be acknowledged that everyone contributed to the debates and discussions. We will let you know what these are when the appropriate authorities have been formally informed.

LAST NIGHT

There was a huge concert taking place which is probably why the church doesn't look its best. However, once again, the church hall admin has assisted us by raising over £4500.00 so far this month! This is without the takings from last night, so as much as we may sometimes feel inconvenienced, we are obtaining vital funds to sustain and maintain our church...Don't forget, we still need to pay back the diocese their £20K which they loaned us for the electrics!
