TODAY - REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Please note that we will gather in church at 10:55 in preparation to observe the 2-minute silence and the striking of Big Ben; if you arrive after this, please wait at the door before taking your seats., as those of us who gathered together to pay our respect to the Fallen, will not want to be disturbed by the bustling of those walking around the church.

ADVENT

Is just 2 weeks away, and in preparation for the season and leading up to the season of Christmas, the Christmas Committee met during the week. The committee decided that for the Midnight Mass this year, we will begin at the earlier time of 11pm, so start spreading the message. A good response was had by those who commented.

As well as Advent beginning, the committee decided that it would be nice to have a soiree after Mass on Advent III; the Churchwardens will provide wine and nibbles on Sunday 12th December.

There are some fabulous Advent Carol services within the Diocese; please see some of the invitations at the back of the church.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Is on Sunday 19th December at 5pm. Details of this very popular event are yet to be finalized, but it is emphasized that entry for this event is proof of being COVID 19 protected, (must have proof of double jab) and a COVID 19 test beforehand. This is so that we can take all the necessary precautions and to have as many spectators as possible in church.

Also on this day, we have Fr Owen coming to share Eucharist and will be preaching.
