TODAY

We have our All Saints' celebration, please stay for fellowship after mass!

THIS AFTERNOON - BARBUDA & ANTIGUA INDEPENDENCE SERVICE

We are pleased to announce the annual service of the Barbuda & Antigua Independence, and all are welcome to attend. Service begins at 3pm.

THIS EVENING, ALL SAINTS, NEW CROSS

We are invited to attend their Patronal Festival this evening. Our links with All Saints, go back to when Fr Owen was the Parish Priest. Since his retirement, and due to Covid, our links have diminished, so we hope that we may be able to sustain our relationship. Fr Owen will be presiding at the service, and Bishop Michael Marshall will be preaching.

Fr Grant is the new Parish Priest,(or not so new now, but new to us)! We will get a bus to New Cross from Newington Green, and if you would like to join us, we will get the 21 bus at 5pm.

ALL SOULS' SERVICE; SUNDAY 7TH NOVEMBER

Names to be remembered of our loved ones who have departed, can be added to the list which is available at the back of Church. Please avoid repetition.

Deadline for names to be printed is today. Names can be added to a separate list on the morning of the service. This will replace the intercessions for next week during the service.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY 14TH NOVEMBER - PLEASE NOTE EARLIER TIME (SLIGHTLY)

Please note that we will gather together in church at 10:55 in preparation to observe the 2 minute silence and the striking of Big Ben; if you arrive after this, please wait at the door before taking your seats., as those of us who gathered together to pay our respect to the Fallen, will not want to be disturbed by the bustling of those walking around the church. The answer to this is not to be late!

PLEASE NOTE THE CLOCKS WENT BACK THIS MORNING, WHICH IS WHY THERE IS NO ONE HERE IF YOU ARE OUTSIDE WAITING!
