Friday 12th	S Josaphat
Saturday 13th	Feria	Mass 10.30am
Sunday 14th	REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY	Parish Mass 11am

TODAY WE COMMEMORATE THE FEAST OF ALL SOULS

Names to be remembered of our loved ones who have departed, can be added to the list which is available at the back of the church; please avoid repetition.

The names remembered today will replace the intercessions during the service.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY 14TH NOVEMBER PLEASE NOTE EARLIER TIME (SLIGHTLY)

Please note that we will gather together in church at 10:55 in preparation to observe the 2-minute silence and the striking of Big Ben; if you arrive after this, please wait at the door before taking your seats., as those of us who gathered together to pay our respect to the Fallen, will not want to be disturbed by the bustling of those walking around the church. The answer to this is not to be late!

BLACK HISTORY

If you are wondering why the church looks like it does, it is because our school put on a display relating to Black History and Black Lives Matter. It should have been taken down on Friday, but Fr David requested to keep the display up longer, so that the congregation can witness an excellent display of works from the children who put together the exhibition. We hope that you will stay and take time to have a look around and learn!

ADVENT

Is just over 3 weeks away, and in preparation for the season and leading up to the season of Christmas, the Christmas Committee met during the week, and we would like to start discussions about the Midnight Mass? The question being asked, is, Whether we should bring the service to an earlier time, or stick to tradition? Do you think we should keep it at 11:30pm, or (for this year at least) to begin about 9pm? Please share your thoughts with one another, have a discussion and feed back to the Christmas Committee group.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Is on Sunday 19th December at 5pm. Details of this very popular event are yet to be finalized, but it is emphasized that entry for this event is proof of being COVID 19 protected, (must have proof of double jab) and a COVID 19 test beforehand. This is so that we can take all the necessary precautions and to have as many spectators as possible in church.
