PATRONAL FESTIVAL

Next week is our big birthday party, and we so look forward to welcoming everyone and join in with our celebrations. Please, we need as much help as possible on the day, with setting up, laying the tables and chairs, preparation of food and drink, and most importantly, as many of us as possible to meet and greet those who will be visiting, and joining us on our very special day.

Please add your name as to what you would like to offer and share. The list is very sparse, but I know we can deliver, as we always do! We hope to make this Patronal very special as we have not been able to share in the Festival of Matthias for over two years. It is very good that we have Bishop Jonathan with us, as well as many clergy and friends visiting, so let's really show how we Party!

Also, you may see how the gardens are looking? Thank you to those who did a bit yesterday, but next Saturday, we will be adding the finishing touches, so if you can spare an hour, that will be helpful. Following Mass at 10:30, perhaps we can spend a couple of hours revamping the area and garden space. We are erecting some food tents on the Sunday morning, so if anyone would like to come along on Sunday from 10:30 and assist in setting up, please don't be shy! Also, if you would like to donate money for any Easter flowers, today is the day to do so, and if there is time during the week, we may do name tags for donations too?

Please note that no 11am Mass next Sunday!

To start our Mass next week, we have a very special performance from our school choir singing some songs before Mass, so do come and see their performance at about 16:45 in church.
