TODAY ALL SOULS

We will be commemorating those who have gone before us. If you would like to have a loved one remembered during the Eucharistic Prayers, please add their name to the list. Please print clearly. It isn't too late to add names, but it needs to be added by the time we come to share the peace.

THIS WEEK

No Mass on Wednesday as Fr David will be on a conference for the role of being Chaplain to the RAF cadets, and will be returning on Friday 10th .

NEXT SUNDAY

Please be aware that we will be beginning our Remembrance Day service slightly earlier at 1056. We will be joined by some of the cadets and leaders who will perform the Last Post and Reveille for the 2 minute observation. Please do be on time for this respectful time of remembering.

After the service, we have been invited to Stoke Newington Town Hall for a very short act of service and perhaps back to the cadets place for tea and biscuits, but this is yet to be confirmed.

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER

Are very short months concerning time and preparations, with all that is going on. The next 2 weeks are about remembering, and then we prepare for Advent and Christmas.

We hope to get our Christmas Tree on Friday 1st Dec and to put it up on 2nd Dec. We have some wonderful things happening concerning the tree this year, so be prepared about decorating the tree. In the past, we have had some wonderful anonymous donators for the the tree. If you would like to donate towards the tree, please see Fr David.
